Summer Steering Committee
Meeting Minutes
October 23, 2001

Present: L. Heenan & J. Cicala (co-chairs), A. Allen, J. Behr, J. Gallagher, B. Levins, Br. J. Kane, Br. E. Koronkiewicz, D. McKenzie, A. Wendell.

1. A revised Summer Events and Activities Template was reviewed and revisions were suggested. The "final" version will be prepared for our November meeting.
2. Ms. Heenan led a review and discussion of Summer 2001 Events and Activities, along with a draft of the report she is preparing, on behalf of the committee, for the Provost and the President.
3. Discussion of summer 2002 events and activities began.
 - a. The schedule of Day ONE, Opening Weekend, and related dates was distributed. Br. John Kane indicated that Intercollegiate Athletics and Recreation's needs for early arrival housing are still to be determined. Dr. Cicala indicated that the schedule may still be modified to accommodate those needs, by adjusting but not adding to the number of early arrival dates, but that we need to finalize the schedule soon, given the needs of other staffs and departments to plan around those dates.
 - b. A calendar reflecting the current state of summer conferences and other events, to which the Day ONE dates will soon be added, was distributed and discussed. It was noted that the dates for both the Lasallian Leadership Institute and the Graduate EDC SE practicum overlap with Day ONE but, because different facilities are used, for the most part, there should be no conflict. It was noted that the Lasallian Volunteers, whose stay runs right up to the first early arrival date for fall, have stated that they would be willing to move their week to an earlier one but cannot because we do not have an appropriate number of beds available to accommodate them at another time. Br. John Kane will provide Liz with athletic camp dates for the next publication of the calendar.
4. It was unanimously agreed that the members would like to invite Director of Multimedia Services Jo Anne Snarponis to join the committee. Dr. Cicala will seek the approval of the Provost and the President and, if they concur, will extend the invitation to Ms. Snarponis.

Summer Steering Committee
Meeting Minutes
January 22, 2002

Present: L. Heenan & J. Cicala (co-chairs), A. Allen, J. Behr, J. Gallagher, S. Hopkins, S. Greb, Br. J. Kane, Br. E. Koronkiewicz, D. McKenzie, P. Polier, A. Wendell.

1. Update(s) regarding Conference and Guest Services Center proposal(s).

Ms. Heenan reported that the two proposals advanced separately by Academic & Student Affairs, based upon our committee's recommendation, and University Advancement have been reconciled. The proposal to create a Conference and Guest Services Center under the auspices of Continuing Studies is now under the President's review. Further details should be available at our next meeting.

2. Further discussion of Day ONE, Opening Weekend, and related dates calendar.

The 2002 calendar remains in draft form, awaiting comment from or dialogue with Intercollegiate Athletics and Recreation regarding the previously proposed early arrival move-in dates. Br. Kane is working to obtain information from IAR, in response to Dr. Cicala's requests. Recent legal decisions point to heightened expectations for the services and duties colleges and universities need to provide to early arrival students which, in turn, means we must continue to bring our early arrival schedule into congruence with our schedules for staff training and their supervision of the residences.

3. Current status of Summer, 2002 conference and event reservations.

Ms. Heenan distributed and reviewed the current schedule. Members offered comments and suggestions regarding the events that appear on the schedule as well as several that do not, as yet. It was noted that the proximity of the schedules for two summer conferences and the need to prepare the St. Miguel complex for fall opening after a summer of heavy conference use will require, at minimum, the use of contracted cleaning services on a large scale in at least those two instances. Dr. Cicala asked Mr. Behr to obtain current cost estimates and to make preliminary arrangements. The costs for these services will need to be added to those for the conferences in question or to be built, overall, into the new pricing plan in development (see below). Ms. Heenan noted that we might receive a request from Edison to house some of their staff on campus this summer as they begin their work with the Philadelphia School System. E. Turzanski has approved Edison for use of our facilities, in keeping with our standard approval procedures. It is not clear, however, as of this writing, whether we will be able to accommodate their needs, given the density of our current housing reservations. Ms. Heenan will begin to add the conferences on the (revised) schedule to the electronic University Calendar.

4. Progress report: guest group categorization sub-committee, including discussion of differential pricing based on categories.

Ms. Hopkins provided an update on the work of this ongoing sub-committee, which also includes Ms. Heenan, Br. Koronkiewicz, and Mr. McKenzie. Three basic categories have been agreed upon, in order of priority for use of University facilities and services: LSU-directed events, LSU-hosted/invited events, and non-affiliated events. The sub-committee will next meet on January 25 to continue to work on proposals for the formal definitions of those categories and the pricing, insurance requirements, and other considerations that will accompany each. Mr. McKenzie is working specifically on the schedule of housing prices.

5. Further review of proposed new materials for event reservations and planning.

Ms. Hopkins presented and led discussion about the materials she has been developing, including information packets for external parties interested in having events at La Salle; policies and procedures for the conduct of external parties' events at La Salle; and so forth. A topic that requires attention, in regard to both internal and external parties, centers on the parameters for the service of alcohol at events in University facilities. While there currently are comprehensive guidelines for the service of alcohol at events sponsored by student organizations, there are no corresponding guidelines for other events. Mr. Wendell, or a designee from the Division of Student Affairs' Community Development unit, and Mr. Greb, or a designee from Food Services, will develop guidelines for our review and recommendation.

6. New business.

Ms. Hopkins indicated that plans for the implementation of the Banner event module are progressing. Mr. McKenzie will provide Ms. Hopkins of basic descriptions of the residential facilities we use for summer conferences. Ms. Heenan, Mr. Wendell, and Mr. McKenzie will develop an abbreviated "housing contract," including relevant rules and regulations, for our review and approval.

Summer Steering Committee
Meeting Agenda
February 5, 2002

Present: Liz Heenan (co-chair), Anna Allen, Jim Behr, Steve Greb, Sarah Hopkins, Br. John Kane, Br. Ed Koronkiewicz, Bob Levins, Dave McKenzie, Katie Murphy, Alan Wendell.

1. Update(s) regarding Conference and Guest Services Center proposal(s).

Liz updated Committee on the status of the Conference and Guest Services proposal, stating that it would be discussed at the next meeting of the President's Team, and that a formal decision should be forthcoming. In answer to a question about how conferences and events are to be handled while discussion of the proposal was ongoing, Liz indicated that the same procedures that were in place last year would continue for now, i.e., Advancement handling Fall and Spring bookings, and Continuing Studies handling Summer.

2. Further discussion of Day ONE, Opening Weekend, and related dates calendar.

The issue of revisions to the Summer 2002 schedule, relative to Early Check-Ins, was discussed with Brother John Kane indicating that Athletics would get information to Joe Cicala as soon as possible.

Steve Greb raised the issue of whether Blue and Gold Dining would be used for the 2002 Day ONES. Alan Wendell indicated this was still being discussed and a decision would be forthcoming. Liz indicated that any decision on this would impact plans for various Summer 2002 conferences, and that she would like to be kept apprised of the decision.

3. Current status of Summer, 2002 conference and event reservations.

Liz informed the Committee of the scheduling of a new program for Summer 2002, the European MBA Exchange Program, being developed by the School of Business Administration. This program will bring 10-12 Swiss MBA students to campus for a three-week program in late July through mid-August. Housing in St. Miguel has been arranged for the first two weeks of the program, space having become available because the Lasallian Volunteers program will not be held here this summer.

Concerns were raised about this program being approved for summer housing, despite the dates falling outside the approved schedule for summer conferences. Liz indicated that, while knowing it fell outside the approved schedule, she also knew space would be available, and that it was a La Salle directed program for which the School of Business Administration had already made some commitments. Anna raised the concern that other La Salle representatives may be committing the University's housing and facilities to use past the established calendar. Alan Wendell and Anna pointed out the problems that ensue when guest-housing commitments are made too far into August, indicating the adverse impact it has on our students returning to campus in preparation for the new academic year. Anna requested that Liz discuss this further with Joe.

4. Progress report: guest group categorization sub-committee, including discussion of differential pricing based on categories.

Sarah Hopkins and Liz presented the work done by the subgroup on the categorization of events (Sarah, Liz, Brother John Kane, Dave McKenzie). The document was distributed for everyone to review, outlining three primary groups of events – La Salle Directed, La Salle Invited and Non-Affiliated. Liz pointed out this was a work in progress and would continue to be refined as we work with more and more groups and conferences. Alan Wendell raised the question about conferences being listed in both La Salle Directed and Non-Affiliated, and Sarah pointed out that there are different kinds of conferences. Liz used the example of the ACUHO-I conference to be held in June, and being hosted by Student Affairs, as an example of a conference that isn't a La Salle Directed program but can't be considered as Non-Affiliated either. Liz pointed out that input from Business Affairs will be important in this ongoing enhancement of the categorization of events.

5. Further review of proposed new materials for event reservations and planning.

This item was tabled for discussion at our next meeting, February 19, 2002.

February 22, 2002

Dear Members of the Campus Community:

I am delighted to announce the appointment of Dr. Sabrina DeTurk as Assistant Provost for Learning Support and Faculty Development. In this new position, Dr. DeTurk will oversee the directors of the Academic Discovery Program, Academic Enrichment Program, Sheekey Writing Center, Academic Support Services for Student Athletes, Tutoring Services and the Teaching and Learning Center. Reporting to the Assistant Provost, too, will be the Coordinator of Distributed Education, a position yet to be filled.

Please join me in congratulating Dr. DeTurk and in wishing her well. Sabrina will assume her new position on June 1, 2002.

Sincerely,

LA SALLE UNIVERSITY

DEPARTMENT OF PHILOSOPHY

PHILADELPHIA, PA 19141

(215) 951-1320

Opening in La Salle University's Philosophy Department:

The Philosophy Department seeks applications for a renewable, non-tenure-track position at the level of Assistant Professor beginning Fall 2002. The teaching load per semester will consist of four "Doubles," i.e., four introductory undergraduate courses that are thematically linked through cooperation with a teaching partner from another discipline. Hence, evidence of teaching excellence as well as scholarly achievement is required. AOS and AOC are open, but preference will be accorded to candidates who have experience teaching doubles courses. Ph.D. in philosophy prior to application is required. La Salle University is a Roman Catholic university in the tradition of the De La Salle Christian Brothers and welcomes applicants from all backgrounds who can contribute to our unique educational mission. For a complete mission statement, please visit our website at www.lasalle.edu. Deadline for applications: March 11, 2002. Send CV, 3 letters of recommendation, teaching evaluations, and a writing sample to Marc Moreau, Chair, Philosophy Department, La Salle University, 1900 W. Olney Avenue, Philadelphia, PA 19141. AA/EOE.

Full-time, Renewable, Non-Tenure-Track Positions:
Two Assistant Professors in English
One Assistant Professor in Psychology

To Teach First-Year Students As Part of “Link Courses”

La Salle University is searching for two assistant professors of English and one assistant professor of Psychology. These positions are full-time, renewable, non-tenure-track ones; faculty will advise first-year students and teach four sections per semester (for English, college writing; for Psychology, introductory courses). These sections, paired with one course in another discipline (i.e., English, History, Philosophy, Psychology, or Religion), will provide a foundation in college writing or in scientific psychology as well as an opportunity to investigate and discuss areas of overlap with other topics in the liberal arts. M.A. required for two positions in English; Ph.D. preferred but not required for position in Psychology. La Salle University is a Roman Catholic institution of higher education in the tradition of the De La Salle Christian Brothers and welcomes applicants from all backgrounds who can contribute to our unique educational mission. For a complete mission statement, please visit our website at www.lasalle.edu. By March 13, an applicant should submit a vita, a statement of teaching philosophy and experience, three letters of recommendation, and teaching evaluations (if available), to the appropriate chair (Dr. James Butler, English; Dr. Margaret Watson, Psychology), La Salle University, 1900 W. Olney Avenue, Philadelphia, PA, 19141. AA/EOE.

OPENING FOR TEACHING LINK COURSES IN THE DEPARTMENT OF RELIGION

The Department of Religion announces an opening, to be filled through an internal search, for a full-time teacher to teach the link courses in the required Gateway Core for first-year students. This position involves the teaching of four sections of either Religion 150, "The Christian Tradition," or Religion 153, "Dynamics of Religion," in link up with another course in English, History, Philosophy or Psychology. These doubled courses will include two sections of the Freshman Year Odyssey (FYO) incorporated into two of the doubled courses. This is a full-time, non-tenure track position. Candidates must have experience teaching the link courses and directing either the FYO or the FYE. A doctorate or significant work toward the doctorate is also required. La Salle University is a Roman Catholic University in the tradition of the De La Salle Christian Brothers and welcomes applicants from all backgrounds who can contribute to our unique educational mission. For a complete mission statement, please visit our website at www.lasalle.edu. Candidates for this position should apply directly to Dr. Geffrey B. Kelly, Chairperson of the Department of Religion, Campus Mail Box 123; tel: 215-951-1335; fax: 215-951-1665. Applications should be received by Friday, March 8th. Review of applications will begin on Monday, March 11th.
